

TEMPLE BETH EMETH of SCOTTSDALE NOVEMBER 2022

NOVEMBER PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The busy holiday season is over and an exciting one it was. You might think that's an odd thing to say, but both Karen and I felt that the Yom Kippur services at Temple Beth Emeth were the best we have ever attended!

The combination of Dr Daniel Stein Kokin and Rabbi David Stein was terrific! They complemented each other perfectly and made the service extremely fulfilling and enjoyable. We enjoyed the familiar sounds of singing and Shofar blowing, and also heard interesting aspects to the holiday that we had not previously discussed. We also participated in the innovative presentation of the original services of our ancestors at the Temple in Jerusalem.

I am extending a Yasher Koach and Thank you to David and Daniel, and all the volunteers who make our services happen. It's a lot of work and it is much appreciated.

I also wish to thank Jorge of NYC Bagel, 7353 N Vía Paseo Del Sur #450A, Scottsdale in the Paseo Village shopping center. Jorge has provided us numerous times with free bagels for our Kiddishes. His generosity is much appreciated.

We also enjoyed the cleanest air we've ever had with the addition of two new air purifiers. I believed it helped make the services more enjoyable as it was one less thing to worry about.

Daniel is continuing to lead services on alternating weeks which are announced by Harvey in his emails.

We had looked at going back to weekly services but for the foreseeable future we will only be having bi-weekly Shabbat services. Please look at our calendar and emails to see which weeks we will be having services.

Karen and I are looking forward to returning to Arizona and seeing everyone in person again. We wish everyone a healthy and sweet year.

Clyde Hurtig            President
