

TEMPLE BETH EMETH of SCOTTSDALE JANUARY 2023

JANUARY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope everyone had a happy and meaningful Chanukah. Karen and I enjoyed the Chabad lighting of the large menorah in Fountain Hills. There were also latkes and sufganiyot.

Public menorah lightings were initiated by Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson in 1974. The first such event that was organized in Edmonton was around 1991. I remember feeling proud and excited that I was going to participate in a public event! I believe this is one of the best services that Chabad has done for the Jewish people. There are now over 15,000 public menorah lighting events around the world.

Please keep an eye on your emails as it will contain the dates that we will have services. We had some interesting services in December, and I much appreciate the lay leadership who helped to conduct them. Once again, I want to thank everyone who volunteers their time. We are all in your debt.

We have also been saying Mishaberachs for some of our members. Our members at McDowell and Kayla Weingarten are also in our thoughts. Wishing everyone good health and a happy year,

Clyde Hurtig                  President

January Holiday Humor

A New Year's resolution is something that goes in one year and out the other.

My new year's resolution is to be more optimistic by keeping my cup half-full with either rum, vodka, or whiskey.

My New Year's resolution is 1080p

May all your troubles last as long as your New Year's resolutions.

I have only one resolution: To rediscover the difference between wants and needs. May I have all I need and want all I have!

People treat New Year's like some sort of life-changing event. If your life sucked last year, it's probably still going to suck tomorrow.

In 2023, may your neighbors respect you, troubles neglect you, angels protect you, and heaven accept you.

I'm actually feeling pretty okay about not accomplishing anything this year.

New Year's is just a holiday created by calendar companies who don't want you reusing last year's calendar.

Tonight the Mayor is dropping the ball in New York while Congress is dropping the ball in Washington.

Where can you find comedians on New Year's Eve? Waiting for the punchline.

Keep the smile, Leave the tear, Hold the laugh, Leave the pain, Think of joy, Forget the fear. Be joyous, cause it is a New Year.
